REENTRY SYMPOSIUM

EXPRESSIONS

VOICES OF OUR STUDENTS

A professional development presentation followed by an open panel discussion with LATTC Amaranth Club reentry students, who will share their experiences, challenges and triumphs related to their journeys from prison or jail to college, as they work to reach their educational, career and life goals. This presentation and interactive panel discussion will include opportunities for dialogue between the students on the panel and the audience.

Who Should Attend:

Administrators, faculty (FLEX credit available), staff and fellow students.

VOICES OF THE COMMUNITY PARTNERS

On one panel, hear from community-based organizations who will share information about the valuable resources, innovative programs and support services for the reentry community in Los Angeles. On another panel, you will hear success stories from formerly incarcerated students who are now employed or who are successful business owners and entrepreneurs. Question and answer sessions will follow each panel discussion.

Who Should Attend: Students, counselors, and other staff interested in resources for our reentry students
